

How We Use Your Information Privacy Policy for Parents

Royal Grammar School

August 2023

Parent Privacy Policy - Key Information

This policy contains the key information about how and why we collect your personal information and what we do with that information. Personal information is information which is about you and from which you can be identified. For example, information about your family circumstances, your financial information and photographs of you.

We strongly recommend reading the full version of our privacy policy which is published on the School's website. You can also obtain a copy of the full privacy policy by contacting the School Bursar, Mrs Kate Perceval – cmp@rgsg.co.uk or writing to The Bursar, Royal Grammar School, High Street, Guildford, Surrey, GU1 3BB. The full version includes additional points, such as, the rights you have in your information including what decisions you can make about your information, for how long the School retains your personal information and our legal grounds for using your personal information.

The School's primary reason for using your personal information is to provide educational services to your child.

We set out below examples of the different ways in which we use your personal information and where that personal information comes from.

- We obtain information about you from admissions forms and from your child's previous school. We may also get information from professionals such as doctors and from local authorities.
- We will have information about any family circumstances which might affect your child's welfare or happiness.
- We will process financial information about you in relation to the payment of fees. In some cases we get information about you from third parties such as credit reference agencies or from your child's previous school(s).
- We may take photographs or videos of you at School events to use on social media and on the School website. This is to show prospective parents and students what we do here and to advertise the School. We may continue to use these photographs and videos after your child has left the School.
- We will send you information to keep you up to date with what is happening at the School. For example, by sending you information about events and activities taking place and the School newsletter.
- We will share your details with The Royal Grammar School Guildford Development & Alumni team, who work to relationships between the School and the wider RGS community and raise funds for widening access to our School.
- We will share your email address/s with the RGS Parents Association (RGSPA) and the RGS Prep Parents Association (LPA) so that they are able to invite you to join Classlist.com. Classlist is a GDPR compliant communication platform and is used by the RGSPA and LPA for all communication with each parent body.

In some situations, we may need to share your information with third parties. For example:

- In accordance with our legal obligations, we will share information with local authorities, Independent Schools Inspectorate and the Department for Education, for example, where we have any safeguarding concerns.
- If you have unpaid fees while your child is at the School we may share information about this with other schools or educational establishments to which you intend to send your child.
- On occasion, we may need to share information with the police, our legal advisors and our insurers.
- The Bursar is the person responsible at our school for managing how we look after personal information. The Bursar can answer any questions which you may have about how we use your personal information.

Parent Privacy Policy

Introduction

This policy is to help you understand how and why we collect personal information about you and what we do with that information. It also explains the decisions that you can make about your own information.

If you have any questions about this policy please contact the Bursar.

What is "personal information"?

Personal information is information that identifies you as an individual and relates to you.

This includes your contact details, next of kin and financial information.

How and why does the School collect and use personal information?

We set out below examples of the different ways in which we use personal information and where this personal information comes from.

1. The School's primary reason for using your personal information is to provide educational services to your child.
2. We will have information about any family circumstances which might affect your child's welfare or happiness. This is to help us provide appropriate care and support to your child.
3. We will need information about any court orders or criminal petitions which relate to you. This is so that we can safeguard the welfare and wellbeing of your child and the other students at the School.
4. We use CCTV to make sure the School site is safe. Images captured of you via CCTV will be your personal data. CCTV is not used in private areas such as changing rooms.
5. If there is a complaint or grievance made to the School which involves you then we will use your information in connection with that complaint or grievance.
6. Where appropriate, the School will have information about your religious beliefs and practices. For example, if you do not eat certain foods.
7. We may take photographs or videos of you at School events to use on social media and on the School website. This is to show prospective parents and students what we do here, to advertise the School and, occasionally, to promote the School's philanthropic activities. We may continue to use these photographs and videos after your child has left the School.
8. We will send you information to keep you up to date with what is happening at the School. For example, by sending you information about events and activities taking place and the School newsletter.
9. We may use information about you if we need this for historical research purposes or for statistical purposes.

10. We will share your details with The Royal Grammar School Guildford Foundation, which is an associated charity of the School, specifically founded to develop relationships between the School and the RGS community. The Foundation is run by the School's Development & Alumni Relations Office, you can see their privacy policy on the School website. You have the right to withdraw consent for use of your data by the RGS Foundation at any time by contacting the Development & Alumni Relations Office on 01483 880665 or email: rgsfoundation@rgsg.co.uk.
11. We may use your information when ensuring network and information security, for example, our anti-virus software might scan files containing information about you.

Financial information

12. We will process financial information about you in relation to the payment of fees. In some cases we get information about you from third parties such as credit reference agencies or from your child's previous School(s).
13. We will hold information about bankruptcy petitions and statutory demands, where relevant.
14. We may search the files of any licensed credit reference agency in order to verify your identity. This also allows us to assess your application for the award of a bursary or for credit in contemplation of an agreement for the deferment of fees. The credit reference agency will keep a record of that search and details about your application. This record will be seen by other organisations which make searches about you.
15. We may share your information with debt recovery suppliers if you do not pay any School fees owed to the School.
16. We will obtain information about you from publicly available sources, such as Companies House and Zoopla, to assess your ability to pay School fees.

Failure to supply information may result in a refusal of an award or credit.

Sharing personal information with third parties

17. In accordance with our legal obligations, we will share information with local authorities, the Independent Schools Inspectorate and the Department for Education, for example, where we have any safeguarding concerns or to comply with our legal obligations.
18. On occasion, we may need to share your information with the police for the prevention and investigation of crime and the prosecution of offenders. We will only do this in specific circumstances to assist the police with their investigations.
19. We may need to share information about you with the Health and Safety Executive (a government organisation) if there is a health and safety issue at the School.
20. In certain circumstances, we may also need to share information with our legal advisers for the purpose of obtaining legal advice.
21. Occasionally we may use consultants, experts and other advisors to assist the School in fulfilling its obligations and to help run the School properly (e.g. our accountants). We will share your information with them if this is relevant to their work.

22. If your child is not of British nationality we have to make sure that your child has the right to study in the UK. Sometimes the government will ask us to provide information as part of our reporting requirements. In addition to this we have a duty to provide information about you to UK Visas and Immigration to comply with our duties as a Tier 4 sponsor.
23. The School is a charity which means that in exceptional circumstances we may need to share your information with the Charity Commission e.g. in the event of a serious incident.
24. We may share information about you with our insurance company, for example, where there is a serious incident at the School.
25. If you have unpaid fees while your child is at the School we may share information about this with other Schools or educational establishments to which you intend to send your child.
26. If your child leaves us to attend another School we may provide that School with information about you. For example, details of family circumstances if there have been any safeguarding incidents.
27. We may share information about you with others in your family, such as another parent or step-parent. For example, where this is part of our obligation to take care of your child, as part of our wider legal and regulatory obligations, or in connection with School fees.
28. We may need to share information if there is an emergency, for example, if you are hurt whilst on School premises.

We sometimes use contractors to handle personal information on our behalf. The following are examples:

- IT consultants who might access information about you when checking the security of our IT network; and
- we use third party "cloud computing" services to store some information rather than the information being stored on hard drives located on the School site.

We obtain information about you from admissions forms and from your child's previous School. We may also get information from professionals such as doctors and from local authorities.

Our legal grounds for using your information

This section contains information about the legal bases that we are relying on when handling your information as described above.

Legitimate interests

This means that the School is using your information when this is necessary for the School's legitimate interests except when your interests and fundamental rights override our legitimate interests.

Specifically, the School has a legitimate interest in:

- providing educational services to your child and to other children;
- safeguarding and promoting the welfare of your child, other children and our employees;

- promoting the objects and interests of the School. This includes using photographs of you at our school events in promotional material. It also includes making sure that we are able to enforce our rights against you, for example, so that we can contact you if unpaid School fees are due;
- keeping the School buildings safe;
- using your information in connection with legal disputes. For example, if you or your child bring a claim against the School;
- protecting the School's reputation;
- facilitating the efficient operation of the School; and
- ensuring that all relevant legal obligations of the School are complied with (for example in relation to inspections).

The School is relying on legitimate interests for all of the 28 purposes listed above.

In addition your personal information may be processed for the legitimate interests of others. For example another School will have a legitimate interest in knowing if you have not paid School fees that are due to us.

Necessary for contract

We will need to use your information in order to perform our obligations under our contract with you and for you to perform your obligations as well. For example, we need your name and contact details so that we can update you on your child's progress and so that we can contact you if there is a concern.

The School is relying on contract for the following purposes listed above: 1, 2, 3, 4, 12, 18 and 21.

Legal obligation

Where the School needs to use your information in order to comply with a legal obligation, for example to report a concern to Children's Services. We may also have to disclose your information to third parties such as the courts, the local authority or the police where legally obliged to do so. This is relevant to the following purposes above: 17, 18, 19, 20, 22, 23 and 26.

Vital interests

In limited circumstances we may use your information to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of someone else (e.g. if you or they are seriously hurt). This is especially relevant to purpose 28 above.

Performance of a task carried out in the public interest (or carrying out public tasks)

The following are examples of when we use your information to perform tasks in the public interest:

- providing your child with an education;
- safeguarding and promoting your welfare, your child's welfare and the welfare of other children;
- facilitating the efficient operation of the School; and
- ensuring that we comply with all of our legal obligations.

The School is carrying out a public task in respect of the following purposes listed above: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23 and 27.

The School must also comply with an additional condition where it processes special categories of personal information. These special categories are as follows: personal information revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic information, biometric information, health information, and information about sex life or orientation.

Substantial public interest

The School is also allowed to use special categories of personal information where doing so is necessary in the substantial public interest. This is similar to "public interest" in the table above and applies to the following purposes listed above: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24 and 27.

Social protection and social security laws

Also the School may use your information to comply with social protection law (e.g. to look after your child) and social security laws.

Vital interests:

In limited circumstances we may use your information to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of someone else (e.g. if you or they are seriously hurt).

Legal claims:

We are allowed to use your information if this is necessary in relation to legal claims. For example, this allows us to share information with our legal advisors and insurers, see the purposes described in 20 and 24.

Criminal offence information

We may only use information relating to criminal convictions and offences where the law allows us to do so. This will usually be where such processing is necessary to carry out our obligations.

Less commonly, we may use information relating to criminal convictions and offences where it is necessary in relation to legal claims, where it is necessary to protect our students and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.

Multiple legal grounds

As you will see from the table above, in some cases we rely on more than one of the bases for a particular use of your information. For example we will rely on contract, legitimate interests and public interest grounds when using your information to provide your child with an education.

The ground that we will rely on for a particular purpose may vary depending on the circumstances. For example, if we decide to tell the local authority something about a parent for safeguarding reasons, sometimes this will be because we have a legal obligation to do so but on other occasions we may tell the local authority because we are worried about the child even if we don't have a legal obligation to report something (in which case we would be relying on legitimate interests and public interests).

Consent

We may ask for your consent to use your information in certain ways as an alternative to relying on any of the grounds in the table above. If we ask for your consent to use your personal information you can take back this consent at any time. Any use of your information before you withdraw your consent remains valid. Please speak to the Bursar if you would like to withdraw any consent given.

Sending information to other countries

In certain circumstances, we may send your information to countries which do not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is in the UK. For example, we may:

- store your information on cloud computer storage based overseas.
- 1 The European Commission has produced a list of countries which have adequate data protection rules. The list can be found here: Adequacy data protection list \(europa.eu\)

If the country that we are sending your information to is not on the list, or is not a country within the EEA (which means the European Union, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland), then it might not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is in the UK.

We will provide you with details about the safeguards which we have in place outside of this privacy policy. If you have any questions about the safeguards that are in place please contact the Bursar.

For how long do we keep your information?

We keep your information for as long as we need to in order to educate and look after your child. We will keep some information after your child has left the School, for example, so that we can find out what happened if you make a complaint.

In exceptional circumstances we may keep your information for a longer time than usual but we would only do so if we had a good reason and only if we are allowed to do so under data protection law.

We can keep information about you for a very long time or even indefinitely if we need this for historical, research or statistical purposes. For example, if we consider the information might be useful if someone wanted to write a book about the School.

Please see our Information and Records Retention Policy for more detailed information. This can be found on our website.

What decisions can you make about your information?

From 25 May 2018 data protection legislation gives you a number of rights regarding your information. Some of these are new rights whilst others build on your existing rights. Your rights are as follows:

- Rectification: if information is incorrect you can ask us to correct it.
- Access: you can also ask what information we hold about you and be provided with a copy. This is commonly known as making a subject access request. We will also give you extra information, such as why we use this information about you, where it came from and what types of people we have sent it to.
- Deletion: you can ask us to delete the information that we hold about you in certain circumstances. For example, where we no longer need the information.
- Portability: you can request the transfer of your information to you or to a third party in a format that can be read by computer. This applies where (a) the information has been provided by you; (b) the basis that we are relying on to process your information is consent or contract (please see "Our legal grounds for using your information below"); and (c) the information is being processed by us on computer.

- Restriction: our use of information about you may be restricted in some cases. For example, if you tell us that the information is inaccurate we can only use it for limited purposes while we check its accuracy.
- Object: you may object to us using your information where:
 - a. we are using it for direct marketing purposes to send you the School magazine;
 - b. the legal ground on which we are relying is either legitimate interests or performance of a task carried out in the public interest. Please see the section "Our legal grounds for using your information" above; and
 - c. we are using it for historical or scientific research purposes or archiving purposes. For example, we may keep photographs of you at a School event for historical reasons.

The Bursar can give you more information about your data protection rights.

Further information and guidance

The Bursar is the person responsible at our School for managing how we look after personal information and deciding how it is shared.

Like other organisations we need to keep your information safe, up to date, only use it for what we said we would, destroy it when we no longer need it and most importantly - treat the information we get fairly.

This policy is to explain how we use your personal information. The Bursar can answer any questions which you may have.

This privacy policy does not, and is not intended to, give you any rights which you did not already have. For example, it does not give you any additional contractual rights.

Please speak to the Bursar if:

- you object to us using your information for marketing purposes e.g. to send you information about School events. We will stop using your information for marketing purposes if you tell us not to; or
- you would like us to update the information we hold about you; or
- you would prefer that certain information is kept confidential.

If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to perform our obligations under the contract we have entered into with you. We may also be prevented from complying with our legal obligations (such as to ensure the welfare of your child and their classmates).

If you consider that we have not acted properly when using your personal information you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office - ico.org.uk.